

Working Seminar:

TDAA now offers member clubs the opportunity to host a test within a teacup seminar.

It works like this:

- A club organizes a teacup seminar
- Club contracts with presenter
- Presenter must be a TDAA judge
- Club contracts with TDAA judge (may also serve as presenter)
- Complete and file the application 60 days prior to the event
- As a part of the seminar the club may offer up to two TDAA sanctioned runs/per day of seminar
- Runs must be judged by a TDAA judge
- Courses must be designed by a TDAA judge and approved by TDAA or previously approved courses must be used.
- Host club must file with TDAA the appropriate results/recording information from these runs to have them “count”
- Application fee is refunded if recording information is postmarked within 5 days of the end of the event
- Working seminar program is not eligible for judge expense support
- Must pay $2 recording fee to TDAA for all dogs running
- Dogs must be registered with TDAA for scores to be recorded (may register day of event)
